

2004 Survey Results

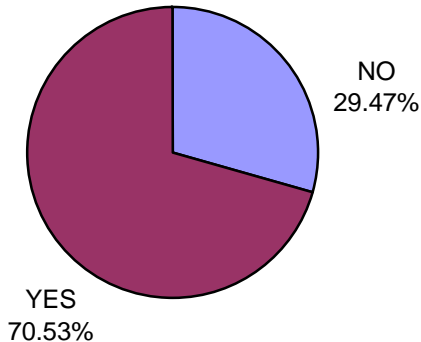

State Senator Billie Breaux, District 34

1. With more than 12,000 employees, the Family & Social Services Administration is the largest state agency administering numerous human service programs including Medicaid, child welfare and mental health. Some people believe the agency has become too large and is losing some of its effectiveness. Do you support legislation that would divide the agency into several smaller agencies?

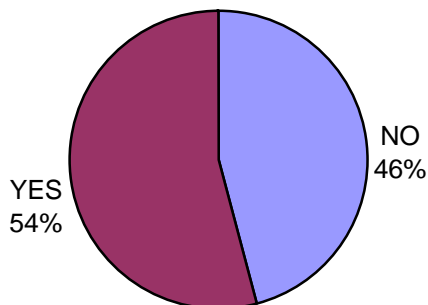

Count	Percent	Answer
58	26.00%	No
148	74.00%	Yes

2. Regarding new school construction, do you support changing the current petition remonstrance process (the collection of signatures on a petition) to a local voter referendum process for new school construction projects?

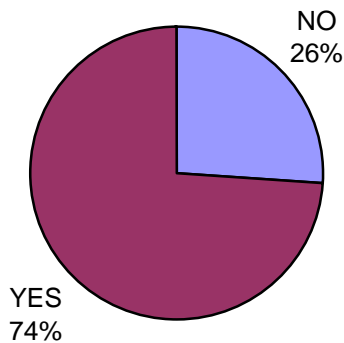

Count	Percent	Answer
61	29.47%	No
146	70.53%	Yes

3. Currently, children under age 4 are required to be in child restraint systems, e.g. booster seats, while in motor vehicles. Do you support legislation to enforce the use of child restraint systems in motor vehicles for children up to the age of 8?

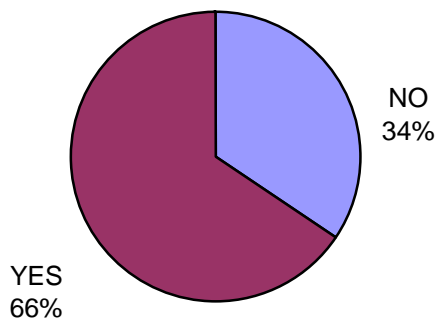

Count	Percent	Answer
96	45.93%	No
113	54.07%	Yes

4. Motor vehicles with truck plates, including some sport utility vehicles (SUVs), are currently not included under the law that requires the use of seatbelts. Do you support legislation which would require the use of seatbelts by front seat passengers in all motor vehicles?

Count	Percent	Answer
56	26.17%	No
158	73.83%	Yes

5. Given Indiana's burgeoning prison population, do you support legislation to reduce current mandatory minimum sentences for certain non-violent offenses as an approach to alleviate prison overcrowding?

Count	Percent	Answer
73	34.30%	No
139	65.50%	Yes

6. Do you support the continued development and public financing of charter schools in Indiana?

Count	Percent	Answer
90	44.78%	No
111	55.22%	Yes